Welcome

If something happens to you tomorrow, could someone else run your household for a month? Pay the bills, feed the dog, find the right plumber, turn off the burglar alarm?

This binder is the answer. It is not about death, it is about practicality. Hospital stays, accidents, even long holidays all create the same problem: someone needs the information that lives in your head.

Fill in what's relevant, ignore what isn't. Print, keep it in a drawer everyone in the family knows about. Update it once a year (we suggest the same week as your annual MOT, a habit that sticks).

USE IT ALONGSIDE

This binder is the operational counterpart to your Will (WS-001), Digital Assets Inventory (WS-040), and Executor Guide (WS-050). Each is independently useful, together they're a complete handover pack.
